

Stan Kowalewski – Camp Director

Coach K. has been coaching high school, college and AAU boys programs for the past 12 years. He has served as an assistant coach at Greensboro Day School, Greensboro College and UNC-Greensboro and has been head coach at Kiser Middle School, Bishop McGuinness High School, High Point Central High School and is now the first ever head coach at Northern Guilford High School. Coach K. has guided the Nighthawks to an 19-9 record in their inaugural season and a runner-up conference finish combined with a state playoff berth. During the 2006-07 season at High Point Central, his team recorded a 25-3 record, won the conference regular season and tourney championship and he guided his team to the #1 ranking in the 4A State poll at the end of the regular season. For his efforts, he was honored as the Metro Conference Coach of the Year for the second consecutive year. His overall record at High Point Central was 47-9 and his overall high school coaching record is 94-49 in five seasons. Coach K. has also been a head coach for the North Carolina Gaters (since 1995) in all AAU age groups between 8 & Under and 19 & Under and he won an AAU National Championship in 2005 with his 19 & Under team. Coach K. played college basketball at Dartmouth College before he began coaching. He will be assisted by his entire staff at Northern Guilford as well as his former players who now play in college.
